More employers looking beyond academic qualifications; nearly 8 in 10 vacancies don't require them

Manpower Ministry says skills-based hiring is gaining ground

[SINGAPORE] Employers in Singapore are increasingly placing less emphasis on academic qualifications when hiring, with nearly eight in 10 job vacancies in 2024 not listing them as the main consideration.

The Job Vacancies Report by the Ministry of Manpower (MOM) released on Friday (Mar 28) indicated that the proportion of vacancies where academic qualifications were not the primary hiring criterion went up to 78.8 per cent in 2024, up from 74.9 per cent in the previous year.

*NYP and TP will also offer a 'Design sub-cluster' as their design courses are more specialised, while the other polytechnics (NP, RP and SP) will offer design as part of the 'Design, Engineering & Technology cluster'.

- Students will continue to be admitted to following specific diplomas:
 - Diploma in Nursing
 - Diploma in Early Childhood Development & Education

Polytechnic Admission Criteria from AY2028

Students have to take at least four G3 subjects, and achieve a net ELR2B2 (English Language [EL], two relevant [R] and two best [B] subjects) aggregate score:

Net ELR2B2 ≤ 22 points (including CCA Bonus Points deduction)

- Except for Nursing which requires a Net ELR2B2-C ≤ 24

One G2 subject can be counted as a [B] subject. With this change, all students will be assessed on a common benchmark of four G3 subjects and one G2 subject, instead of five G3 subjects. Students who offer both [B] subjects at G3 will have their [B] subject with a lower grade mapped from G3 to G2 based on an empirically validated grade mapping table.

Students must meet Minimum Entry Requirements (MERs) of each course. MERs vary across courses. Relevant Subjects (R2) vary across courses. Please refer to MOE CourseFinder.
